Jude

Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and a brother of James, to those who have been called, whom he foreknew, who by the sanctification of the Spirit, have been justified, who have obtained eternal inheritance, who are kept for the salvation of their souls through faith, to you, dear friends, very much beloved,

Concerning the Assurance of the Foreknowledge of God, the Upholding of His Servants, the Uttering of the Prophecy, the Upholding of the Church, the Denunciation of the Ungodly, the Blessing of the Righteous, the Greeting of Beloved Ones.

A Call to Persevere

But dear friends, remembering the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the word delivered by them, which they declared before your fathers, who have been first witnesses of it, and have declared it to you; by them ye are in the present time, by their peaceful doctrine, ye only have been delivered, so that the word of God is not idle with you, who through faith and love are enrolled among eternal life. Amen.

Greeting and Remembrance

Grace and peace be multiplied unto you of God the Father, and of our Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.

To the seven churches of Asia:

Beginning of the word of life which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen, which we have handled, which we have known, and the which we have believed in our hearts, that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. Amen. I have written unto you, elders, which are the same charge of the Lord, and partakers of his sufferings, and that glory which shall be revealed, exhorting the brethren to be strengthened in the Lord. Amen.
