Frisco Community Bible Church
Cantonese Pastor needed

We are seeking a spiritual leader, who has a heart of pastoral ministry, is willing to train and equip disciples, and is able to lead team ministries. The qualifications include:

- (1) A pastor with ten years' pastoral experience in North America or a seminarian graduate who has served in North America multi-cultural church(es);
- (2) Accredited seminary degree, M.Div. or Th.M.;
- (3) Fluent in Cantonese, with a good command of conversational English. Speaking Mandarin is a plus.

Frisco Community Bible Church (www.friscocbc.org) is located in the city of Frisco in the northern suburb of the Dallas Metroplex. Frisco is a booming city for Chinese immigrants. The church has been established for twenty-two years with attendance of 350 at its adult services (with around 100 at the Cantonese service), and 100 at its youth and children services and is planning on our Phase III building project. Languages at services and fellowships are in Mandarin, English and Cantonese.

If interested, please contact Spencer Tsang at spencer.tsang@frisccbc.org or by mail to FCBC Cantonese Pastoral Search Committee at 10055 Warren Parkway, Frisco, TX 75035.
