OVERVIEW

Application

Students may apply for housing after acceptance from the Admissions (new students) or Registrar's Office (returning students). The housing application is available on Campus Housing's webpage. New residents must pay a New Resident Fee of $200 prior to move-in date through their Self-Service account.

Assignments

Housing assignments are made in the order in which the applications are received and based on availability. Prospective residents are encouraged to apply early once class registration opens.

Rent

Rent is due on or before the first day of each month. A late fee will be assessed if rent is not paid by the third of the month. Rent is prorated for General Housing or applied by term in the Residence Halls. Unless moving in in the Spring, housing agreements are for both Fall and Spring semesters (10 month duration for General Housing followed by 2 months each summer).

Pets

Student Village Townhomes and Perimeter/Duplexes are Southwestern's pet friendly neighborhoods (max. 2 pets). All pet owners must fill out a pet application and pay annual pet fees. PET and ESA applications are available in eRezLife.

Class Requirements

Students occupying seminary housing must be enrolled in an approved degree or certificate program and maintain a minimum of six, on-campus, credit hours each Spring and Fall semester. Th.M. or doctoral program require a minimum of one, on-campus, credit hour enrollment each Spring and Fall semester.

RESIDENCE HALLS

Barnard Hall (women) and Fort Worth Hall (men) are residence halls available to students 29 and younger. All Texas Baptist College students are required to live in the Residence Halls for the duration of their program or until 26 years old. Each room is equipped with a twin sized bed, a dresser, a closet, a desk, and a chair. A list of items to bring is available on the housing webpage. Microwaves and laundry rooms available to residents.

	Single Room	Double Room
Graduate Rate	$4,110	$3,605
Undergraduate Rate	$4,710	$4,185

NOTE: The prices above reflect both the room rate and included meal plan as well as P.O. Box fees per semester.
